Studio Guidelines

Rules and Regulations:

Students are expected to be on their best behavior at all times, respecting their instructor as well as the studio. Please encourage small children to use restrooms before or after their class. When picking up your child, please try to be prompt in arriving in a timely manner to make the transitional periods between classes run efficiently. For your safety, your child will not be released from class until a parent or guardian arrives inside the building to escort him/her out. Parents are strongly encouraged to drop children off. Socializing in the waiting area can be very distracting the class and instructors. If class has begun, please refrain from any questions or concerns that do not require immediate attention. Questions can be answered between classes. Or by reaching Karrie at (978) 671-0400. If questions or concerns require immediate attention please approach me.

Performances and Rehearsals:

A performance is planned for the end of the school year. Tentative dates are June 21, 2018 (dress rehearsal) and June 23, 2018 performance. All students are expected to participate in this performance. If this may be a concern for you please inform the instructor. This will not affect your child in class however, instructors need to be aware of non-performance participants. As these dates approach, mandatory extra rehearsals will be scheduled to prepare for the performance. This usually takes place one-week prior.

Instructor Biographies

Karrie Stang Mason has over thirty-four years of study in dance, including jazz, ballet, hip hop, modern, lyrical, line dance, musical theatre and Zumba. She has been teaching dance for over twenty-five years and has held entertainment positions at "Walt Disney World Resorts" and "Premiere Cruise Lines". She is a former member of "Stillpoint Dance Company" in Haverhill, MA and a former member of "Push Factor Dance Company". Karrie lives her life's passion as the founder/owner of "Gotta Dance" Dance Studios and teaches hundreds of students per week in the Merrimack Valley and Southern New Hampshire area. She has an Associate's Degree in Dance from Northern Essex Community College where she also instructed dance classes, and attended the University of Nevada, Las Vegas in the field of Psychology and Physical Education. Karrie's other accomplishments include choreographing for the Concord Players' production of Chicago, West Side Story, The Scarlet Pimpernel and Dirty Rotten Scoundrels and Carlisle and Concord Middle School's production of Grease Jr., Willy Wonka Jr., Bye Bye Birdie and Godspell at UMASS/Lowell and performing in the musical, The Wiz for the Merrimack Valley Players. Karrie currently spends much of her time choreographing and preparing the Gotta Dance competition team for their upcoming season.

Katrina Rotondi has been dancing for over twenty years and is experienced in Tap, Jazz, Hip Hop, Ballet, Modern, Lyrical, Line Dancing and Musical Theater. She is also certified in Zumba and Zumba Gold. Katrina has been teaching for over ten years at "Gotta Dance" and also at several senior centers and recreations in the area. She has a Bachelor's degree in Theater Arts with a concentration in Dance from Franklin Pierce College. Katrina's other accomplishments include an on-stage appearance in the Concord Players productions of West Side Story and Dirty Rotten Scoundrels. She has also choreographed for the Carlisle middle school production of Into the Woods and Bye Bye Birdie and the Lexington Players Spring Awakening. She is also a choreographer and teacher for the Gotta Dance competition teams.

Jay Newlon originally a BFA candidate in acting at the University of Tennessee (Clarence Brown Equity Theatre), transferred his energies to dance and studies under such luminaries as Eric Hawkins, Murray Louis, Nanette Charless and Hector Zaraspe in New York. He was an apprentice with the International Ballet of Caracas, a scholarship student with the Boston Ballet and performed in Boston with Jassin (Jeanette Neil), the Danny Sloan Dance Company, Bay State Ballet and the Opera Company of Boston. After a long hiatus, his recent engagements include performances with the Boston Dance Company, the Academy of Ballet Arts and soloist with Northern Ballet Theatre and Melrose Youth Ballet. Jay's accomplishments include many performances with the Concord Players, most recently in the production of West Side Story as Riff.

Heather Dinsmore began dancing over 40 years ago and has been dancing as a student of Gotta Dance since 2006. With encouragement from family and friends, she has begun a new career - teaching her love of dance to the youngest of dancers. Heather is a Billerica native and took dance classes at Dance Unlimited, Patti Nichol's Dance Center and Donna Miceli Dance Center studying jazz, ballet, tap, and modern. She is a graduate of Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, FL, where she holds a BA in Human Development and a minor in Dance. While in college, she was a founding member of Co-Motion Dance Theater, spent a Winter Term studying theater in London, performed as Adriana in Shakespeare's A Comedy of Errors, and performed in the dance ensemble in productions of A Chorus Line and Grease. Heather worked for many years as a Recreation Director at a retirement home and was certified as a Therapeutic Recreation Assistant. She continued her dance education at Northern Essex Community College towards a Dance Education Certificate and continues to take classes in the area. In her spare time, she volunteers with her kid's activities and teaches line dance and cardio classes at the Billerica Senior Center and other retirement communities in the area. She is the wife of a Billerica Firefighter and proud mother to Kelly, Joe and Ryan, all alumni of Gotta Dance.

Cassandra Floor started choreographing in 2000 for Lowell High School's The Spindles Show Choir, a position she held for five years, during which she lead the Spindles to three consecutive years of gold medals. She is a graduate from Fitchburg State College (FSC) with a B.S. in Early Childhood Education and Theater. While at FSC, she instructed the beginner and intermediate lyrical classes for the Dance Club and was the choreographer for FSC's productions of Romeo and Juliet and Zorba!. In 2004, Cassandra choreographed two community theater productions of A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum for Calliope Productions in Boylston, MA and The Weston Friendly Society. In 2005, Cassandra married her husband Greg and moved to Salt Lake City. While there she enjoyed teaching first grade in the city's model school and was awarded a grant for arts in the public schools to teach dance to children from low-income families. Cassandra is glad to be back in Massachusetts, now a new Mom of her baby girl and is glad to be back at Gotta Dance.

Jessica Dearbeck has her Master of Science degree in Organizational Leadership and her Bachelor of Arts degree in Vocal Music from Mercyhurst College. Jessica has several years of dance training in Musical Theater, Ballet, Pointe, Tap, Jazz and Hip Hop. Over the past six years she has held the title of Director/Choreographer for High Schools and Community Theaters in the following shows: Into the Woods, The Wedding Singer, The Pajama Game, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, Grease, Follies, Bye Bye Birdie, State Fair, Anything Goes, and School House Rocks and Oklahoma. Jessica has also appeared in many performances as lead roles and head dancer. She lives her passion as a dance choreographer and instructor in the Merrimack Valley area. She has recently relocated from Pennsylvania to Massachusetts where her husband holds the title of Theater Director at Billerica Memorial High School.

Kayla (Decost) Wright Kayla fell in love with dance at the age of 2. She is currently pursuing a degree in business and received her Associate's Degree in Business Accounting in 2013. Kayla began her training at Dance New England and at the age of 10 she started training under Crystal Gennell at All That Dance Academy. She has been an instructor for 7 years and taught ages 2-18. Kayla's choreography has received outstanding medals, overalls, and special awards at regional and national competitions. She began working for Turn It Up Dance Challenge in 2011. Kayla is a backstage director at their Regional and National Events and assists their National Dance Team. Kayla attends conventions as often as possible, where she takes part in classes in many different genres, to keep up on her technique and choreography skills. Kayla has taken classes with Stacey Tookey, Travis Wall, Ray Leeper, Elizabeth Parkinson, Alan Sherfield, and more. Kayla genuinely loves teaching, and is grateful everyday to be able to do what she loves and share her passion with her students!

Kendra James has been teaching gymnastics and cheerleading to students for 18 years. She began her training at Walker's Dance and Gymnastics where she was a dancer and gymnast for twelve years. She has made appearances on ESPN as a cheerleader. She has won numerous state, regional and national titles for both gymnastics and cheerleading. Since then, Kendra has coached cheerleading for Pop-Warner thru All-Star students and gymnastics for students at Wilkey's Gym, 5-6-7-8 Dance Studio and Encore Dance Academy. Kendra's one-on-one approach to teaching allows each individual to grow according to their ability.

Denise Moore is excited to join the staff of Gotta Dance. Denise has over 20 years of dance experience and over 10 years of teaching experience. Denise is an examined member of the Dance Teacher's Club of Boston. She enjoys teaching tap, ballet, and jazz and especially enjoys teaching creative movement to the youngest dancers! Denise, a resident of Billerica, is also a registered nurse specializing in pediatrics and a mom to 3 children. She is very excited to share her love of dance with the Gotta Dance studio!

Dorothea (Thea) Vaporis has studied ballet, pointe, jazz, and modern in the Greater Boston area for over twenty years. Thea received Vaganova style ballet through her mentor Judith Koeckhoven. She has performed roles in many local performances including the Nutcracker, Coppéila, and Gisele. Thea's love for ballet led her to become a published dance model. Local photographer Ella Prints published prints of Thea as Odette and Odile from Swan Lake. Thea furthered her knowledge of dance through the dance education program at Middlesex Community College. Thea continues learning about dance education through certifications, weekly classes, and workshops. Thea currently works as an esthetician and make-up artist, while working on her BA in History and Art History.

Brianna Hogan has been a student at "Gotta Dance" since the age of 3, when she fell in love with dance. She has been dancing for 15 years and continues her dance education with Karrie Mason and the Gotta Dance staff as well as working with renowned instructors and choreographers attending master classes and conventions throughout New England area. Brianna has experience in jazz, hip hop, ballet, pointe, lyrical and contemporary. She has been involved with the "Gotta Dance" Competition and Dance Teams for the past 9 years and has performed in over 100 events. She is also an honor roll student, and has received the Abigail Adams Scholarship as well as presidential academic awards. She has been assisting classes for many years and loves working with the younger students at "Gotta Dance". Brianna is very excited to start teaching classes in the fall.

Brendan Falsey started dancing at the age of eight. He studied dance on his own using resources such as YouTube and books to educate himself outside of classes. He has performed with groups such as Expressive Movement, led by Jeff Jean-Philippe, and StriveForChange Lifestyle, led by Vattana Thach. He started teaching in his senior year of high school in 2014, and has since taught in studios and workshops around New England. Brendan is looking forward to the opportunity to work with our Gotta Dance dancers!

Class Descriptions

Acro: The class will focus on conditioning, flexibility and tumbling. Basic acro skills such as bridges, rolls, cartwheels, standing back bends, back walkovers, front walkovers, and limbers will be included. As students advance they will learn ariels, handsprings, and tucks. Dance elements will be incorporated into the class as well. Dancers should always come to class in dance/gymnastic attire preferably a leotard or fitted leggings and a cami top. Street clothes are not permitted and hair must be worn up and securely fastened for safety reasons. Dancers will be barefoot during all acro classes.

Advanced Classes: These level II, III, and IV classes are designed for instructors and students with a strong dance background. All advanced classes have pre-requisites of at least 2 years in the previous level class.

Ballet: This class is the true foundation for all other classes and will enhance your ability to learn all styles of dance. The discipline of ballet will improve posture, coordination, learning ability, and dance etiquette needed to study the art of dance. Ballet class is recommended for all dancers, and is required for students taking advanced level classes or participating in performing companies.

Competition Teams: Competition Teams are designed for serious dancers who love to dance, perform, and compete. Competition students should dance at least 3-5 hours per week. Dance must be their number one activity. All competition students must be enrolled in ballet and jazz classes. Some dance experience is necessary. Auditions are required. Ages 7-Adult. Please see your instructor for more information.

Contemporary: Contemporary Dance is a compilation of different techniques based from Modern Dance. It involves integrating the mind body spirit connection with the dance movement. The dance may also strengthen improvisation skills to express the mood of the piece as there is an emotional connection to this style. This class is designed to expand ones perception of dance by experimenting unique and creative movement in a non-conventional way. Contemporary class will include technique, improvisations and creative patterns. This divergent discipline of dance is sure to create and/or enhance aesthetic awareness. Dancers are most often barefoot. Some ballet background required.

Creative Dance: Creative Dance is designed for preschool aged children. This class helps children to recognize their physical person. It teaches them dance moves with a fun approach through games and songs. This class also includes stretching, tumbling and development of motor skills.

Dance Teams: Dance Teams are designed for hard working students who love to dance and perform. They will be challenged with dance routines from all disciplines such as Jazz, Hip Hop, Ballet, Lyrical, Musical Theatre and more. They will be a part of our performing groups dancing at various locations throughout the year and representing "Gotta Dance". All dance team members must be enrolled in ballet class. Auditions required. Ages 7-Adult. Please see your instructor for more information.

Hip-Hop: An enjoyable and challenging dance class with hip moves and fun foot work done to top 40 music. This class will enhance strength and coordination. Hip-Hop is very upbeat using different body parts in an up and down motion. Appropriate for both boys and girls!!! Jazz/ ballet class highly increases ability to learn hip-hop, though lit is not required, it is recommended that jazz/ballet class be considered as well).

Jazz & Jazz Funk: A great dance class with fun moves, teaching technique, dance terminology, coordination and flexibility. Choreography will include leaps, turns, kicks, and many traveling steps, along with other fancy moves. This challenging class will be done to upbeat music. Jazz Funk adds a few hip hop elements to the choreography and class technique. Great for all ages.

Line dance: This class is designed for Senior Citizens and Adults. This is a great form of low impact exercise. Learn several Country and Social Line Dances done at functions from the Hustle to the Boot Scootin' Boogie. Dances will be done to a wide variety of music. Give it a shot!!! You'll love it.

Lyrical: This expressionistic class includes a combination of ballet and jazz dancing. With the leaps and turns of jazz combined with the fluency of ballet. This class teaches you balance, strength, posture and the ability to release inner energy. Some ballet background is required and Jazz experience is helpful.

Modern Jazz: This class combines Modern and Jazz foundations and technique. Modern is based on natural, expressive, and sequential movements. This dance technique was developed in the early 1900's along with the modern art explosion. Modern Dance expresses individuality and encourages the students to express a broad range of emotions through various qualities of movement. Students will learn techniques from Graham & Cunningham. Jazz develops isolation movements of specific body parts while incorporating different qualities of movement into choreographed sequences. The foundations of jazz will be based on Luigi's technique. Improvisation, creative movement, and basic technique are all incorporated into this Modern Jazz class.

Mommy and Me: Your toddler is using his/her skills to become a good problem solver and is beginning to understand the patterns and actions they need to perform, and in what order, to reach a goal. Through this motor planning, they will imitate and will begin to understand the use of objects. The activities we will do will support motor planning, color recognition, listening, taking turns, and following directions.

Musical Theater: Fun, Fun, Fun!!! For the dancer who wants to act or the actor who wants to dance. This class is definitely designed for the "performer." Come on Drama Queens! This class will teach stage presence and self confidence along with stylistic moves from Broadway musicals. Group vocals will play a role in this class. Too shy?? Come join us any way, we'll change that! Designed for ages 7+.

Tap: Let's make some noise! This fun class will teach the coordination of making rhythmic music with your feet. This class will consist of quick foot work with upper and lower body movement while learning to understand more about music and its rhythm.

Zumba®: This Dance/Aerobic program incorporates footwork and body movements from flamenco, salsa and other dances. Participants pump their legs, windmill their arms, gyrate their hips, clap their hands, dip, slide and spin all to a frenzied beat that leaves them with flushed cheeks and dripping in sweat.
